

Table with 4 columns and 14 rows of horse racing data. Each row contains details for a specific race, including race name, date, track, distance, and participating horses with their statistics and odds.